- FROM THE WORKSHOP - FUEL INJECTOR SERVICING -

Fuel Injectors

Did you realise you should get your fuel injectors on your Tractors and Headers serviced approx every 1800hrs? Valves should also be inspected and adjusted at the same time.

An incorrect spraying pattern can cause severe damage to pistons or liners. By servicing your injectors you can achieve better fuel economy and increased horsepower out of your machine.

If you are interested in finding out the horsepower of your machine, we have a Dyno machine available in the workshop. Before and after injector servicing testing can also be arranged.

Talk to Owen about servicing yours and start saving today!
